PREFACE.

This is a catalogue of the books in the Legislative Library at the date of the removal from the temporary quarters at No. 4 Queen's Park to the new building, which catalogue has been prepared in accordance with directions received from the late Hon. A. J. Matheson, Provincial Treasurer. It comprises about 58,000 volumes, and includes about 10,000 volumes saved from the fire of September, 1909, the great bulk of the books having been subsequently acquired either by purchase or donation.

The catalogue is an author list, except in the three leading departments of Law, Economics and Reference, in which departments the works are also detailed under their principal subjects.

Inasmuch as this catalogue is intended to be permanent in character, forming a new foundation for the Library, to be supplemented hereafter by accession lists issued at convenient intervals, it has been thought proper not to include about a thousand volumes of current fiction now in the Library. In the ordinary course these volumes, on becoming worn, will be handed over to the inmates of the various Government institutions, to be by them repaired as additions to their libraries. Consequently it is useless printing the names of such books in this catalogue.

The Library has acquired since the fire a considerable number of pamphlets, but it has not been possible yet to overtake the task of cataloguing them. .

It is interesting to recall that this is the sixth occasion on which this Library, the lineal successor of the Parliamentary Libraries of Upper Canada and the Province of Canada, has needed to be born again. Its first experience of evil fortune was suffered on 27th April, 1813, when the Parliament Buildings of Upper Canada at York were destroyed by an invading American force. On 30th December, 1824, an overheated stovepipe caused the destruction of the second Parliament Buildings; also of the Library, then not a very large collection. On 25th April, 1849, the Parliament Buildings of the Province of Canada at Montreal were destroyed by a mob during the excitement attending the passage of the Rebellion Losses Bill. The Library at this time was a very valuable one of about 15,000 volumes in the Assembly Library and half that number in the Library of the Council. Only 200 volumes were saved. The fourth occasion was on 1st February, 1854, when the Parliament Buildings at Quebec fell a prey to an accidental fire, and the Library lost about half of the 17,000 volumes acquired during the five years which had elapsed since the previous visitation. At Confederation, when the Parliamentary Library was moved to Ottawa, the number of volumes had increased to 65,000, in consideration of the value of which Ontario and Quebec were each allowed $100,000 in the computation of the Provincial Assets, and in addition a number of the volumes which were duplicates were handed back to each library, forming the nucleus of a new collection. The latest and most disastrous fire took place on 1st September, 1909, when the criminal negligence of plumbers who were repairing the roof of the Parliament Buildings caused the destruction of more than 100,000 of the 110,000 volumes which the Library then contained.

As the new north block of the Parliament Buildings in which the Library is now housed is of fireproof construction and the Library furnishings are almost wholly of steel, it may reasonably be hoped that, with ordinary care and luck, the Library will not be burned for a sixth time.

AVERN PARDOE,

Toronto, 1st February, 1913.

LESLIE, Charles. "Best Answer," &c., Containing:—

- (1) Best Answer ever Was Made, and to Which No Answer ever Will Be Made (Not to Be behind Mr. Hoadly in Assurance) in Answer to His Bill of Complaint, Exhibited against the Lord Bishop of Exeter, for His Lordship's Sermon Preached Before Her Majesty, March 8, 1708. Addressed in a Letter to the Said Mr. Hoadly Himself, by a "Student of the Temple" (Charles Leslie.) London, 1709.
- (2) Best of All, Being the Student's Thanks to Mr. Hoadly, Wherein Mr. Hoadly's Second Part of His Measures of Submission, (Which He Intends soon to Publish) Is fully Answered, if This Does Not Stop It. And the only Original of Government Is fully Demonstrated. And That Is a Law to All Ages. In a Letter to Himself. Which He Is Desired to Send, as an Eye-Salve, to His Under-Spurleather, Mr. Stoughton, the State-Haranguer in Ireland. Third Edition. London, 1710.
- (3) Beaucoup de Bruit pour une Aumelette; or Much a Do about Nothing, Being a Tryal of Skill betwixt the Jacobites' Hopes Revived, and the Good Old Cause. By a "True Trojan" (Charles Leslie.) London, 1710.
- (4) Constitution, Laws and Government, of England, Vindicated, in a Letter to the Reverend Mr. William Higden, on account of His View of the English Constitution, with respect to the Sovereign Authority of the Prince, &c. In Vindication of the Lawfulness of Taking the Oaths, &c. By a "Natural Born Subject" (Charles Leslie). London, 1709.
- (5) English Constitution Fully Stated, with Some Animadversions on Mr. Higden's Mistakes about It. In a Letter to a Friend. London, 1710.
- (6) Right of Monarchy Asserted; wherein the Abstract of Dr. King's Book, with the Motives for the Reviving It at This Juncture Are fully Considered. London, 1713.
- (7) Obedience to Civil Government clearly Stated: wherein the Christian Religion Is Rescued from the False Notions Pretended to Be Drawn from It; and Mr. Hoadly's Scheme, in His Last Book of the Origin and Form of Government, Is fully Considered. London, 1711.
